Boy Saved From Life of Crime by an Operation

Denver.-Believed to have been saved from a life of crime by the removal of part of an enlarged thyroid gland in his throat, Maurice Alterson, Denver's 10 year-old "sunaway," is speedily recovering his physical strength and, it is confidently hoped by juvenile court officers, the mental poise ordinarily developed in youths of his age.

Maurice has been considered incorrigible, and his many escapades led Juvenile Court Judge Ben Lindsey to direct an examination into his mentality, in the belief that the boy's habit of running away was due to some payoopathic cause rather than any inherent "badness."

Mental experts declared that Maurice had the brain of a man past his ma-jority, despite his 10 years. Maurice the incorrigible fell asleep a St. Joseph's hospital amid the dazzling expanse of strange white tables and the mystifying fumes of ether. When he awoke several hours later his norm of mentality had been reduced elever years and the world has been relieved of a potential master criminal, according to the medical experts.

ing to the medical experts.

Previous to the operation Maurice's 31 year-old mentality, co-ordinated by the judgment and will power of a boy of 10 years, resulted in his setting inte all sorts of trouble. The mischlef that he pernetrated, guided by the clever man mind, was more effective than any that could be devised by an ordinary how.
